M.E. Rule On Divorce Emphasized By Bishop

GIGANTIC RALLY GIVES IMPETUS TO BIG FIGHT ON LIQUOR

Clarion Cry For Renewed Effort to Wipe Out Saloon Sounded By Wilson

HUNDREDS OF KIDDIES STAGE HUGE PARADE

Temperance Demonstration To Be Felt Throughout California

Heart and soul in the fight to free California of the liquor traffic, the Methodist conference of Southern California Saturday night gave an impetus to the great battle through a temperance rally that, through the renewed enthusiasm of the ministry and other visitors, will be felt throughout Southern California.

The call to activity was sounded in no uncertain terms.

"If California is to go dry in November, every one of you must get in and work from now until election day," declared J. Stitt Wilson, formerly mayor of Berkeley, the principal speaker Saturday night.

The evening rally was preceded by a great parade of Young Campaigners, hundreds of children of Orange county marching the streets, carrying banners and issuing their yells as a part of the expression that should be taken in the welfare of the youth of the land.

The parade was an inspiration. It brought home the fact that "California Dry" would better conditions for these children as they grow up.

Wilson's Address

The address of J. Stitt Wilson was preceded by singing by the Orange quartet, composed of H. A. Farrer, L. W. Hemphill, E. C. Haines and H. W. Allen, and by a talk by H. A. Wheeler, superintendent of the Southern California Dry Federation.

"Put yourself under personal obligations to this cause," said Wilson. "It is the last 20,000 votes that are hardest to get."

"This movement in California is part of a great world-wide attack, part of the tide of man's interest in his fellow men, a tide that is going to push the liquor traffic off the earth."

"Prohibition prohibits chattel slavery. Prohibition prohibits class rule. Prohibition will prohibit the liquor traffic. This generation has not gained any great point in the emancipation of the human race. It is about to do so."

"Judge the liquor traffic by what it can produce. Judge it as a general policy. There is one great criticism, but it is a colorless one, and I hesitate to state it lest I fail to give it its merited forcefulness. First, let me state a few subordinate criticisms: The liquor traffic produces crime, insanity, suicide, drunkenness and poverty."

His Friend Bob

HERE ARE PUNCHES LOOSED BY WILSON IN ATTACK ON RUM

"The worst count against the liquor traffic is that it is instantly, everlastingly and unceasingly produces a defective humanity, an inefficient humanity and a degenerate humanity."

"There is but one value on earth, and that is the value of the human soul. Keep California prosperous? How much are you willing to give to keep California prosperous? To keep California prosperous, as the California Prosperity League sees it, there must be furnished patrons at the bar, men whose money is spent for liquor."

"Will you furnish a patron? Will you give a brother or a husband or a son to help keep California prosperous? I have a son 24 years old. I tell you, I'll let that 'prosperity' go to hell before I'll give my son to help it."

STRIKE DETAILS LAID BY N. Y. LABOR HEADS

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Labor leaders today worked out the details of their plans for a walkout of union workers which they confidently expected to occur next Wednesday. ### OHIOAN WEDS HEIRESS TO TWENTY MILLIONS

His widow conducted his business affairs and organized a $600,000 coal corporation.

PLAGUE BREAKS IN RENO

RENO, Nev., Sept. 25.—Schools today were ordered closed and children denied admittance to theaters when two cases of infantile paralysis were discovered.

STRONG CANONS TO EASE EVILS NOW EXISTING SUGGESTED

Appointments Not Due Before 9 O'clock This Evening Is Indicated

That Methodist ministers are not allowed, under a rule of the general conference, to marry divorced persons, excepting when the ground of divorce is adultery, was emphasized this morning by Bishop Adna W. Leonard, in the morning session of this, the last day of the Southern California Methodist Conference.

While the Methodists have always frowned upon the marriage of divorced persons, it was not until the last general conference that a positive rule against it was adopted. That rule makes any minister who marries a divorced person, unless that person has been divorced upon the ground of adultery committed by the other person concerned in the divorce action, subject to a charge of maladministration, which charge may be filed and heard by the Conference. It found guilty of maladministration the minister may be discharged from the Conference.

"I should like to see a rule by which it would be necessary for a divorced person seeking a marriage ceremony at the hands of one of our ministers to make a sworn statement as to the cause of divorce or show a copy of the court records showing that the divorce was granted upon the grounds of adultery, before the ceremony could be performed by the Methodist minister," said Bishop Leonard.

"By the church taking this firm stand and staying with it, I believe a great deal of good can be done against the divorce evil."

Church Ritual

This morning the bishop also called the attention of the members of the conference to the rule passed by the last general conference directing that for all ceremonies of the church, including marriages, communion, and burials, the ritual as laid down in the Discipline shall be followed.

The appointments probably will not be made before 9 o'clock this evening.

Morning Address

The last of the wonderful addresses by Dr. L. H. Hough at the Methodist Conference was given this morning upon "The Strategy of the Cross."

"If Christ was divine and died upon the cross," said he, "the faith of God in man is shown, and God is the one who knows man the best. If He had such faith in man, how can we not believe in humanity?"

"God could not be merely a spectator of human suffering. He had to become one of us."

"The cross reveals God's faith in man. His wonderful courage in His coming to earth to suffer as a human being, and His wonderful love."

Methodist Hospital

The report of the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles at the Conference was interesting. This is its second year. It has paid its own expenses, has paid $750 interest per month, and has done $1000 charity work a month. It has treated 2162 patients, 74 of these free, 117 at a discount. There have been 669 major operations, 1363 minor operations, 365 births, 29,994 days of service and 66 deaths. This report was read by Byron Wilson, superintendent of the hospital.

Reports of the Deaconess and Foreign Missionary Boards were read.

Rev. J. R. Stevens, superintendent of the San Francisco District, spoke for the Home Mission Board.

COURT MARTIAL FOR TROOPERS CROSSING LINE, FUNSTON'S ORDER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—General Funston today wired the War Department that he had ordered a court-martial of Corporal Rogers and seven cavalrymen of the Texas patrol for crossing the Rio Grande. The Mexicans fired on them, killing a horse.

$15,000,000 STATE ROAD BOND ISSUE IS ENDORSED BY EDITORS

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 25.—The proposed $15,000,000 bond issue for State highways was endorsed by the Northern Editorial Association in convention here. A larger appropriation for the State fair also was recommended. After a debate the association declared against compulsory military training.

65 Lives Lost On Prospect Avenue, 7 Cats, 2 Rabbits

Autos Take Heavy Toll During Night—There May Have Been Speeding

Seven families along Prospect avenue are perhaps today mourning the loss of pet cats, which evidently did not have the proverbial nine lives.

Seven dead cats and two rabbits were counted on that highway this morning between Hewes Park and First street, Tustin.

The count was made by "Happy" Hagerman, who is night watchman at the Hewes ranch and who comes to his home in this city early in the morning.

The big death list indicates that some speeding was done on the avenue last night.

It may not have been the result of autos speeding either—it may have been that the cats and rabbits were on the highway and blinded by the strong rays of light from the headlights of machines, ran in front of the autos.

BERLIN ADMITS TWO DIRIGIBLES LOST IN RAID

LONDON, Sept. 25.—With three of Germany's biggest and latest types of Zeppelins brought down on English soil within a few weeks, Britons today believe that London is more secure against air raids than ever before, despite the fact that the latest raids were made with a greater number of aircraft than ever.

Military authorities declare that the air defenses of London have stood the most supreme test. Only three Zeppelins approached London and they were driven off by anti-aircraft guns.

The motors and those parts of the Zeppelin that were seriously damaged have been gathered by members of the Royal Flying Corps for inspection.

Residences of the Essex villages when the monsters crashed down, were absolutely unmoved by the visit of the doomed Zeppelins. After the night raid when the German craft was only a twisted mass of wreckage, there was little comment.

One of the Zeppelins fell within a half-mile of a village of more than 1000 population. Every one of these persons shows indifference, which amounts to lethargy regarding the dangers to which they are exposed by raiding Germans. The fact that three huge German craft have been brought to earth in three weeks, seems to have instilled them with a certain confidence that they will be protected no matter what happens.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—The loss of two Zeppelins in Saturday's raid on England today was admitted officially by the admiralty.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Twenty-eight persons were killed and ninety-nine wounded in the Metropolitan district of London, and two persons were killed, probably four, and seventeen wounded in the provinces in Saturday's Zeppelin raid.

The property damage, while widely distributed, is confined for the most part to small suburban dwellings and shops, although one railway station was damaged.

2-YEAR AUTO DEATHS MORE THAN ZEPPELS

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—More people have been killed and injured in automobiles on the streets of American cities during this year than in all the Zeppelin raids on England. In Chicago and New York, who lead, the number of deaths was more than 200 each between January 1 and September 1.

The number of fatalities in other large cities was proportionately high, however, varying with the population of the towns. These figures were compiled from reports from a score of cities based on police records and show a constantly growing death list as a result of automobile accidents.

Despite the fact that improved traffic laws have been enacted in New York and other states even more drastic legislation is being urged.

In cities from which reports are available figures from September 1 showed that a total of 1040 persons have been killed and more than 8000 injured.

Only partial lists of injured having been received, it is possible that the complete toll would show almost double this.

In Zeppelin raids on England to date about 368 persons have been killed and 817 wounded in two years.

$510,000,000 IS WORLD RECORD SET BY U. S. IN EXPORTS

Mark Is $35,000,000 Higher Than Previous Figure, Reached In May

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—In the greatest bull market in the history of the New York Stock Exchange steel, copper and railroad shares today advanced to new high records while frantic brokers crowded and fought to execute orders that poured in from all sections of the country.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A world's record for exports was set by the United States during August. Exports totaled $510,000,000. This is $35,000,000 higher than the previous record established in May, and $75,000,000 higher than the June total.

Imports decreased $47,000,000 until June when a high record was set.

August was the first month in which the United States sent abroad exports exceeding a half billion.

Exports for the year ending with August totaled $4,750,000,000, with imports at $2,300,000,000.

WHEAT YIELD IN NINE COUNTRIES FALLS TO 69 P. C. AGAINST '15

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The total production of wheat in the United States, India, Tunis, Spain, England, Wales, Ireland, Italy and Canada fell to sixty-nine per cent of last year's total yield, it was announced today.

PERSHING MADE MAJOR GENERAL, SUCCEEDING GEN. ALBERT L. MILLS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Brigadier-General Pershing today was made a major general to succeed the late General Albert L. Mills.

FACE BUILT OF CLAY ON SKULL OF SLAIN MAN LEADS TO ARRESTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A face built of modeling clay upon the bare bones of a skull; a check for ten dollars found in the clothing of a man supposed to have been murdered and recognition by friends of the murdered man by the reconstructed features are responsible for the fact that Giovanni Romano and Victor Viciotto are in the Raymond street jail today.

Lieutenant Williams of the Bureau of Missing Persons, aided by Dr. Pecondini, an expert in the testing laboratories, rebuilt the features of Dominic La Rosa and dressed the skeleton in clothing supposed to be his.

The two suspects are now charged with the murder of La Rosa and his friend Rosario Bassarello.

The police are investigating a report that the skeletons of two children were also found on the truck farm of Viciotto.

ENLISTED MAN, FIRST TIME KNOWN, IS MADE LEGAL CORPS MAJOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The appointment today of Captain Dennis R. Quinlan to the legal corps of the army with the rank of major, is perhaps the first instance where an enlisted man has risen to such rank. Quinlan enlisted in the regular army at the outbreak of the Spanish war. He was an attorney.

6 HURT AS TROLLEY CAR RUNS AMUCK, HITS POLE, TURNS TURTLE

OMAHA, Sept. 25.—Its brakes demolished when it collided with a wagon on a hill, a Benson street car today ran for twenty-two blocks, hit a telegraph pole and turned over twice. Six persons were injured, two probably fatally.

EARL OF ESSEX DEAD; BODY IS FOUND TODAY

NEWMARKET, Eng., Sept. 25.—The Earl of Essex was found dead today.

Warned From Heels of Mule, Man Meets Fate At Front End

San Joaquin Critter's Teeth Nip Brace of Holes In Leg of Worker

They told him that if he kept at a mule's head he wouldn't be hurt.

J. Escado followed the advice given him, yet yesterday he had to send for a doctor to help repair damages received from a mule as he stood at the mule's head.

Escado is at work on the San Joaquin ranch, where there are mules of various degrees. Yesterday he started to put a bridle on Maud's head—of course, the mule is named Maud. He warily circled the animal's heels, ordinarily designated as the business end of a mule, and approached from the front.

He was unaware of Maud's disposition. He thought he was in the safety zone. He wasn't. Suddenly Maud laid back her ears, just as is pictured in the funny paper, and before Escado had a chance to say "manana" or wave a flag of truce or offer felicitations or send a note, Maud had him by the leg. Maud is a fairly young mule, and her teeth are in no need of a dentist's attention. Take it from Escado, her teeth are in good repair. They closed on Escado's leg, and mighty near took out a chunk.

The physician who was called found two holes cut by Maud's dental equipment, and between the holes was a ridge of bruised flesh. Escado has come to the conclusion that he would just as soon trust one end of a mule as the other.

HUGHES' BATTLE FOR VOTES IS ON IN OHIO

DAYTON, O., Sept. 25.—The Americanism preached by Republican presidential nominee Chas. E. Hughes today was backed by a plea for patriotic unity urged by Ohio's governor, Frank B. Willis, both speaking before an audience of civil war veterans.

Such was the start of the Republican campaign in Ohio. The opening was at the Soldiers' Home at Lakeside Park.

"All I want for this country is that it have our middle-aged men and our young men as well as women to view our national problems with the same patriotic spirit of our veterans to be assured of the prosperity and permanence of the nation," said Hughes.

WILSON VICTORY ASSURED, THINKS BRYAN

ASBURY PARK, Sept. 25.—President and Mrs. Wilson left Asbury Park for Baltimore at 9 a. m. today, where the President will deliver what Democratic leaders regard as an extremely important speech. After a canvass, former Secretary of State Bryan believes that President Wilson will be elected.

After a canvass of the entire program Bryan has written his personal friends that the strength of the President is gaining everywhere. The President's mail is full of Bryan these days. Senators, Congressmen and party leaders are sending in reports of what they term the inestimable results of the Nebraska tour of the West. Great crowds greeted the Commander, said the reports.

LYRIC THEATER, BALTIMORE, MD., SEPT. 25.—President Wilson, addressing a loudly-cheering throng of 3000, today said:

"I believe in party action but have supreme contempt for partisan action. Whenever party feeling invades our actions it is to be condemned. There are certain questions that should not be influenced by the fact that two parties are contesting for power. I want to speak to you about the business situation insofar as America is concerned. We are facing a new business era in America. Business has burst from its jacket."

It can no longer be taken care of in local markets and now develops the American business man who has not studied the problem of a foreign market. We have no merchant marine. National banks will not be in a position to handle foreign exchange. America is not only unaccustomed but disinclined to touch the nerves of foreign business."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Assistant Secretary of Commerce Edwin F. Sweet today resigned to run for governor of Michigan.

TRIESTE WATER SUPPLY IS CUT OFF BY LATIN ARMY, ROME REPORTS

The British exploded a number of mines, damaging enemy trenches.

CRETE IS CONTROLLED BY 30,000 INSURGENTS

ATHENS, Sept. 25.—Thirty thousand insurgents are now in control of Crete, following the occupation of Canea and Hieracium. Only eleven of King Constantine's bodyguard remained loyal. The rest surrendered to the insurgents without a struggle.

AFTER BEING DELAYED BY $1,000,000 PLAGUE GOTHAM SCHOOLS OPEN

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The New York public schools opened today after a two weeks' delay caused by the infantile paralysis epidemic. There are nearly 100,000 pupils. About a tenth of this number usually enrolled failed to register, presumably because of the paralysis scare.

Today's report of the health department showed only fourteen new cases of paralysis and five deaths in the last twenty-four hours. This is a low record since the middle of June.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Delayed since the regular opening date the first of the month, by the infantile paralysis epidemic, which has claimed about 10,000 victims, of whom 3000 died, and which cost the city a million dollars, school opened here today.

A goodly percentage of New York City's boys and girls did not attend, however, because their parents still fear the disease which has baffled city, county, state and federal authorities until the last few weeks.

It now is believed the blood infusion method has shown the way to the control of the disease. Every precaution will be taken to prevent a repetition of the epidemic this year.

MEMORY OF GOODIES GONE BEFORE CAUSES HUNGER, NEW THEORY

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—When is hunger? Ordinarily, when a man declares he is hungry he really believes it to be the case. Latest scientific revelations seem to be to the contrary. At least they indicate that too frequently hunger so-called is a mental process occasioned by the memory of good things gone before. Prof. Anton J. Carlson of the University of Chicago has written a book dealing with what he calls the hunger urge and its relation to man's gastronomic activities. The book tends to make the layman conclude that he might as well have gone without his last meal as not—for all he knew about whether he was hungry.

HARBISON'S RECORD IS OVER 20 YEARS SERVICE IN DRY CAUSE, SAYS M. E. MINISTER

"In this expression I do not wish to make invidious comparisons—I simply want to give Mr. Harbison a square deal."

This was the statement made today by Rev. Chas. H. Scott, who is here attending the Southern California Methodist conference, in an interview and discussion this morning with reference to the attacks made on R. C. Harbison, Republican nominee for Congress from this district, in the primary campaign, by campaign representatives of J. S. Edwards, Prohibition nominee for congress.

It was asserted by some of his opponents that Harbison's position had been doubtful when the wet and dry issue was squarely raised.

Rev. Scott was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church at San Bernardino, and the past year has been in charge of the church at Ontario.

"During the two years of my pastorate at San Bernardino I was intimately connected with the anti-liquor movement there," said Rev. Scott.

"My connection was first as the leader of the city campaign to put the saloons here out of existence. Later I was president of the San Bernardino Dry Federation in the campaign of two years ago and at the same time I was president of the San Bernardino City Dry Federation."

"In all of the activities of this movement Mr. Harbison, both through his paper and personal efforts, backed up what I was trying to do."

"In my opinion, any person who attacks Mr. Harbison on wet and dry subjects is allowing party enthusiasm to run away with his sound judgment. He has a record of over twenty years of service and sacrifice for the dry movement. For many years of that time it was dangerous in many ways for one in his position to espouse the dry cause."

"He stood by his convictions, and it is unfair and unjust to charge him with being unfaithful to the cause of temperance."

QUESTION: WHO OWNS SURPLUS STREET COVER?

City Wants French Product, But Contractor Is Hauling It to Yards

Who owns the top of a street? The property owner pays for it, but who owns it?

The question has been raised on French street. A few years ago that street from Fifth to Washington was paved by the petrolium method. The surfacing has worn through in places, and it was decided to re-surface the entire street with crushed rock and oil, such as has been used recently on a number of streets.

The contract was secured by the Orange County Engineering & Construction Company. Last week the steam roller began its journey up and down the street, ripping, harrowing and grading the old surfacing. There was a lot of it, consisting of coarse gravel and sand, such as was used in the petrolium surfacing.

This refuse looked like good road material. It had to be hauled away. Street Superintendent O'Brien was ticked to death to see J. J. Stuke, who has charge of construction for the O. C. E. & Co., that some of it could be dumped on Hickey street and some of it in an alley north of Vance street between Minter and Lacy streets, and the rest of it could be dumped on a vacant lot, from which O'Brien would later have it hauled to places that need repaving.

Two or three blocks on Hickey street were covered with the material, and two loads had been hauled into the alley north of Vance street when suddenly the teamsters got orders to haul all of the stuff to the O. C. E. & Co. yards. It appears that the contractors concluded that the stuff was mighty good road-building material, and it might be sold or used in connection with other contracts.

O'Brien had a vacant lot cleared ready to receive the surfacing, but so far none has been dumped on the space he prepared for it. In fact, the surfacing is claimed by the contractor.

One reason why the contractor called a halt on hauling material into the alley north of Vance became quickly apparent when property owners were sought to sign a contract for paving the alley. It was proposed to make a fill and base with the French street product, and cover that with crushed rock and oil, for two and a half cents per square foot.

The city could use the material to excellent advantage, but at present the surfacing is claimed by the O. C. E. & Co. people, and is being hauled to that company's yards.

Who really owns it? City Trustee Greenleaf says that the question is one that has never been settled. Ordinarily, a contractor grading a street wants to get rid of surplus dirt on the shortest possible haul, but this old surfacing off of French street is better than ordinary dirt. The city wants it, but the contractor is getting it.

By the way, this surfacing was paid for by the property owners of French street a few years ago.

TUSTIN IS DEFEATED BY SCORE OF 7 TO 3

Yesterday on the local diamond, the Tustin baseball team was defeated by the Pacific Electric of Los Angeles by a score of 7 to 3. Four wild throws in the first inning let in four runs for the P. E. team. After that spasm was over, the game was fairly even. San Francisco for Tustin struck out nine batters, and Schulz for the visitors struck out five.

WOMAN SLAIN, 3 HURT AS AUTO DIVES BANK

One death resulted in Orange county yesterday as the result of the usual Sunday activities among motorists.

Miss Pearl Jackson, daughter of J. H. Jackson of San Diego, was instantly killed when a machine her father was driving plunged down a fifteen-foot embankment on the hill road between Olinda and Brea. Miss Jackson was 27 years of age. Her father sustained a compound fracture of the left arm and bruises and abrasions. Her mother suffered a broken right arm, two fractured ribs and a severe laceration over one eye. Miss Ila Jackson, sister, 20 years old, escaped with slight injuries. The body of Miss Jackson was taken to Fullerton and the injured were conveyed to the hospital at Anaheim.

Coroner Winbiger took statements from members of the family today and will not hold an inquest.

Mr. Jackson, manager and owner of the Penn Oil Company of San Diego, left San Diego early yesterday morning with his family to visit his son, C. S. Jackson, who lives at No. 1239 South Hope street, Los Angeles. Mr. Jackson is well known in San Diego, having lived there for twenty years. After reaching Brea, they drove to Olinda to inspect some oil property in which Jackson is interested and it was on the way back that the accident happened.

They had just crossed a railroad, after leaving Olinda, when they came to one dangerous curve down into a dip and a second up an embankment. Not expecting nor seeing the second curve, Jackson drove on over the embankment, the machine rolling over into the brush below.

Miss Pearl Jackson was employed at her father's office as a stenographer.

Rendered Unconscious In Accident Yesterday

Atilano Martinez, 12-year-old Mexican lad, was taken to the Santa Ana Hospital late yesterday afternoon in an unconscious condition as the result of an accident at the corner of Main and Walnut streets. He recovered soon after reaching the hospital. He sustained no serious injuries, severe bruises being the extent of his hurts.

Martinez, riding a bicycle, collided with a cut-down Ford roadster driven by Paul Sepulveda. The boy was riding south on Main street. Sepulveda was driving north on the same street, and turned on to West Walnut. The automobilist made a full swing on the turn. He saw the boy, but thought he would pass to the rear. The lad evidently became confused and instead of turning either to the right or left, continued a straight course and struck the machine about the center. He was thrown over the handle bars of his bicycle, striking the machine head first.

He was picked up by parties who saw the accident and rushed to the hospital, an Anaheim man taking him in his car. Officer Joe Ryan accompanied the man to the hospital. Those who witnessed the accident say the boy was as much at fault as Sepulveda.

POLISH WOMEN MEET TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR COUNTRY'S AID

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Leading Polish women of America gathered here today to discuss ways and means of continuing the campaign to secure permission from the ruling European powers to allow food and other relief to be sent from the United States to starving Poland.

The failure of a personal appeal by President Wilson to the belligerent powers, made for the Polish Women's Alliance of America, in annual convention, in formulating plans they hope finally will result in breaking the blockade against Polish relief.

Mrs. Ignaz Paderewski, wife of the famous pianist, who has been working unceasingly for the last year in behalf of her people, is here to address the delegates representing 18,000 women.

54 HITS IN 58 SHOTS NEW RECORD MADE BY BATTLESHIP FLORIDA

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 25.—Fifty-four hits in fifty-eight shots with 12-inch guns is said to be the record established by the battleship Florida in the Atlantic fleet's individual target practice at short and intermediate ranges off the Virginia coast. Officers predicted that this record would put the Florida at the top of the gunnery list by a wide margin.

COAST TRIP BY T. R. MAY BE CALLED OFF

spent $180 in saloons, money he had saved in a whole summer's work in a lumber camp. Bob had the heart taken out of him, for he could not buy the clothes his four little girls needed, and he could not give his sick wife the vacation she greatly needed.

"I am after the liquor traffic for what it did to my friend Bob," declared Wilson. "The course of the liquor traffic falls heaviest on the poor."

"The California Prosperity League which is making a fight to keep the state wet, is backed by the contributions of men of wealth. That is why its work seems to me most infamous, for those men are rich enough that they will never miss whatever so-called losses may be sustained by a change to a dry state."

Deacons and Elders Are Ordained

Dexter, Atwater; Rev. Lawrence V. Lucas, El Segundo; Rev. G. A. Vinnick, Los Angeles; Rev. John E. Engle, Victorville; Rev. Oliver M. Butterfield, Bellflower; Rev. B. M. Nance, For elders: Rev. ### Evangelistic Sermon By Dr. Hough

Dr. Lynn Harold Hough took for his message last night at the great evangelistic meeting of the Methodist Conference "The Holy Spirit." He spoke of the small number of people who have lived upon the earth who have actually known Christ personally.

"How, then, can we prove that ours is an imperial religion? In every human being the god-spirit enters no matter where or who that person is, and having entered their life presses them toward the best that they know. This is world-wide. So we must recognize that the voice of the Holy Spirit is not a strange one. It is one we have often heard."

"The Holy Spirit in our lives forces us to decide at some time in our lives for or against the best we know. If we decide against this, we have sinned against the spirit. A man can sin himself away from God. He can become incapable of repentance and of responding to God's love. If man follows the tendency toward God, it makes him feel that someone notices it. This is the difference between morality and religion—morality tries to do good, religion tries to do good with God's help. God gave us something we cannot do alone, to cause us to need Him."

"The Spirit can do the most for the man who has a Christian experience. It uses the messages of the Bible to thrill men and makes the truths of the Bible glow, and men feel their truth personally."

"There must be a feeling of conviction of sin, to build a successful church. After a conviction of sin men have a restless, hard despair; and when they do reach that state they are ready for the story of the son of God with his winsome life and death on the cross, and this turns man's thoughts from himself to the wonder of Christ's life and sacrifice. Then the Holy Spirit helps him to jump into a trust in Christ, and the Bible has a new power, the Spirit of God thrills through the messages and fills us with the presence of the divine spirit. Then a loyalty to Christ becomes lost in love for Him. The days have music in them not felt before."

"The spirit then makes men and women into a great brotherhood, bound together in the bond of the love of Jesus, giving them the world outlook."

In conclusion he compared men to an organ, whose notes were discords, until they received the touch of the Master Musician and became harmonious and instruments of power.

There was music at the service by the Long Beach Male Quartette.

Powerful Sermon By Bishop Leonard

A tremendous audience heard Bishop Leonard at the First Methodist Church yesterday morning. The bishop has not only endeavored himself to the members of the conference, but has impressed his audiences here with his marked ability as a preacher of the gospel.

Taking as his text, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation," the bishop said: "The eager research of the ages has been for power. Man has always been in quest of power, and the progress of civilization shows that man is coming to his own."

"Paul here is uttering one of the most profound truths known to man when he says the gospel is the power of God unto salvation. Its power overthrew the cruel inhuman institutions of ancient Rome. It gave in our day to the colored race its rights under the flag, and the day dawns when the Sermon on the Mount will be practiced in the plain and industrial strife will cease."

The overthrow of the legalized run traffic will be brought about by the forces of righteousness."

The bishop gave some most striking illustrations from history and from his own experience to illustrate the power of God both in the national and individual life. The sermon was one of great fervor, and eloquence, and power, and held spellbound the great audience that packed the building to its utmost capacity.

Coat Stolen From Automobile

Santa Ana has made a good reputation among the visitors to the conference as a city where large numbers of machines may be parked on the streets without the owners suffering at the hands of thieves.

The streets near the First Methodist Church have been crowded with cars every day and evening since the conference convened and not until yesterday was there a report of articles left in machines being missing.

Mrs. R. A. Shadowen of East Collins avenue, Orange, reported to the city police this morning that a lady's dark blue coat was stolen from her car yesterday afternoon.

THE DEMOCRATS ALSO

A few days ago news announcement was made that B. B. Meek, Democratic nominee for the Assembly from Yuba and Sutter counties, declared for Johnson and now comes W. H. Carlin of Marysville, lifelong Democrat and the most prominent attorney of Northern California, who announces that he will support Governor Johnson. Attorney Carlin gives the reason for the faith that is in him in the following statement:

"I will support Governor Johnson for the United States Senate. To state all the reasons therefor would require too much space. I may say, however, that if California desires to be represented by its ablest advocate and representative, as well as by its foremost citizen, there should be no other choice.

"He certainly knows his state, its needs and its relation to the other states of the Union, and can be depended upon to give a good account of himself whenever and wherever called upon. He has thus far administered the duties of his office as governor so that the ordinary man and woman throughout the state, whatever may be his or her calling, has at last learned to believe that he and she have a real interest in the state's government, and a real representative in its executive.

"The human quantity in our state government has been by the Governor wonderfully developed, and of course his record shows that all his pledges have been carried out to the letter. I also intend to vote for the re-election of President Wilson, and somehow I am unable to discover any inconsistency on my part in this respect."

TOO MUCH SYSTEM

Too much red tape in the rearing of children is about as harmful as none at all. The best of all the many surveys and investigations of charity homes for children has been the recommendation to break up the big institutions and their systems and to place the little ones in small groups under the cottage plan, or in state-supervised homes.

It has been discovered that the majority of the children reared in institutions grow up with many limitations, physical and mental. Be the system lax or exact, the child suffers under it. And it suffers, just as surely, in any over-systematized home. Many parents, even of some intelligence, think it scientific to let infants wall away the first few months of their lives. "Crying is the only exercise the babies get, therefore they should be permitted to cry," is a most convenient theory for careless nurses and selfish mothers.

But prolonged crying acts on the nervous system; it impairs and even stops digestion, as many an adult has discovered by experience. And it produces colic in babies, and therefore more crying. And what if a baby does cry merely to be taken up? A baby is well within its rights when it objects to being kept on a pillow all the time. Since a baby cannot exercise, it needs massage to promote its circulation, to keep its hands and feet warm. Nature provided a way to keep it warm in the cuddling a loving mother gives it instinctively, in the massage it gets from every soft pressure of its mother's caressing arms.

And now consider the mental activity of the good baby, which is content to watch the light spot on the ceiling every waking minute. No matter how beautiful its nursery, it is as much a victim of too much system as any abandoned baby in an asylum's dormitory. It is learning considerably less than the "spoiled" darling which has to be shown various interesting things in this new and strange world to keep it quiet.

Even though mothers do lose too large a proportion of their babies, they have not watched their offspring, ever since Eve nursed Adam, without learning a few truths about them. But lately, between the teachings of the doctors and the preachings of some trained nurses, mothers have grown much too modest about their own experience and practice, even about their own natural instincts. It is high time for them to put some of this humility aside. Mothers and babies antedate doctors and nurses, and there are many worse guides than a mother's love and tenderness.—Stockton Record.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Wickedness of Marble Ladies
There is a fuss in one California school district because of the picture of the Venus de Milo that some inquiry has managed to insinuate into a textbook. Of course personal views, even among worthy people, will differ concerning a marble lady whose general outlines from the waist up are not left to conjecture. To me the figure is not suggestive of wickedness. It is rather indifferent with regard to the emotion it expresses. Indeed it seems an artistic object, about as provocative of sin as might be a drift of snow. But then you never can tell who will blush at sight of a marble Venus, and the ones who blush could not be expected to explain why, for such confession would be indelicate.

Hitting Us Again

Now comes a London paper printing the picture of Cornelius Vanderbilt as that of the submarine captain who sank the Lusitania. Worse than this, it analyzes the countenance of the subject, showing where the facial dips, spurs and angles combine to form the most absolute criminal type.

Old Lombroso himself, before his theory had been knocked galley west, never made a worse break. Cornelius toils not, nor spins, to speak of, and may be the type of the gilded idler, but he is not the type of the baby-slayer. The chances are that he viewed the sinking of the Lusitania with reprobation. Moreover, a Vanderbilt is not a mere American citizen but an institution, and New York must feel now about as Philadelphia would feel had the London paper taken a slam at a Biddle.

We Can Feel Easy Now

At this late date a doctor stands forth to say that coffee taken in moderate quantities, is healthful.

Had often wondered why some doctor had not proclaimed this well known truth long ago. The people of this country drink coffee right along, and feel pretty well, thank you, and yet the theory that coffee is deadly is dimmed into them all the time. Coffee doesn't hurt the people who drink it, but seems to cause non-drinkers lots of pain, particularly if they are peddling a substitute.

Giving It a Trial

The resident of Oregon who lately was chosen to the honor of being the state's most useful citizen has been naturalized since bestowal of such distinction. He had lived in Oregon twenty-three years, made a fortune there, and at last decided that it was a good enough place for him to accept citizenship in.

Suppressing the Frats
Public school pupils are not allowed to belong to frats. Good thing, too, for the little snobs. But the frats flourish in higher institutions, and the chances are that the old man who warns his boy against the wickedness of the school club belongs to one of his own, where they play poker and things like that.

Independence
Mexicans in this country have been celebrating the one hundred and sixth anniversary of their country's independence. Otherwise there are few indications that that country enjoys the blessing mentioned.

Not an Anarchist
Somebody took the trouble to print the opinion that Henry Ford was an anarchist, and Ford has taken the trouble to ask the gentleman who formulated this opinion to hand over a million or so.

Mr Ford has done some strange things. For instance, he paid the expenses of a lot of queeros to Europe where they expected to accomplish the impossible, and he pays the men who work for him more than other manufacturers enjoy seeing paid to them.

Constructing either line of conduct into anarchy would be so singular a process that perhaps the defendant can spring an insanity plea and get away with it.

BILLINGS IS FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER IN BAY CITY BOMB CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Warren K. Billings was found guilty by a jury of murder in the first degree for taking the life of Mrs. Myrtle Irene Van Loo, one of ten spectators killed by the explosion of a suitcase bomb during a crowded downtown corner during a Preparedness parade here July 22. Life imprisonment was recommended in the verdict. He will be sentenced tomorrow.

It took the jury three hours to reach a verdict. Eight ballots were taken. It was understood. District Attorney Charles M. Fickert said he learned the jury stood for conviction on all ballots, but could not agree whether to recommend the death penalty or life imprisonment.

The verdict came as a surprise to Billings and his attorney, Maxwell McNutt. Throughout the fortnight's trial Billings had worn an air of assurance and confidence. His confidence vanished when the jury filed in and the verdict was read. "They might as well have hanged me as given me life," said he. "If I was guilty enough to convict, why didn't I get it in full?"

HONOR FATHER SERRA BY DEDICATING PALMS TO HIM AT BIG FAIR

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 25.—Franciscan fathers, other churchmen and many laymen honored the memory of Father Junipero Serra at the exposition. Two palms, dedicated to the memory of the early padre, were planted and a bronze tablet was unveiled in the Montezuma gardens by the Franciscan fathers.

The provincial Antonius Salazar of Santa Barbara and Father Guadalupe of San Luis Rey and other priests assisted. Preceding the ceremony was an imposing procession of altar boys, priests, local churchmen and Indians of the Painted Desert. Dr. George Wharton James, who was formerly a Methodist minister, gave an oration, "A Protestant's Appreciation." Thousands witnessed the ceremony, which was the more impressive by reason of the setting.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

J. W. Norton, Master Kenneth Norton Celebrate Natal Day With Dinner

J. W. Norton and his son, Master Kenneth Norton, were the honored guests yesterday at a five-course chicken dinner, served by Mrs. Norton in honor of the anniversary of their birth.

The two large tables were beautifully decked with red and white roses, pretty cards marked the places and a pink carnation was presented each guest.

Following dinner music was rendered by Misses Dorothy and Vivian Newman, and Mr. Wolff and Miss Irene Shute sang. Some of the guests enjoyed an automobile drive with W. R. Newman. The dinner guests were Dr. L. Mann Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McAfee, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolff, Misses Vivian Newman, Dorothy Newman, Irene Shute, Clara Wolff, Master Kenneth Norton.

On Saturday afternoon Master Kenneth entertained his little friends at Birch Street Park, honoring his seventh birthday. The children gathered at the Norton home on West First street and were taken to the pretty park by Mrs. Norton, who was assisted during the afternoon by Miss Isabel Boyd and Mrs. Jack Cope.

The little folks played jolly games, Master Kenneth played for them on his violin and group pictures were taken of the happy company.

When the children were seated at the long table, prettily centered with roses and ferns, Master Kenneth thanked them all for the many useful gifts he had received, ice cream, cake and candy were served in abundance and each child received a pretty favor.

Those who enjoyed Kenneth's party were: Marie Boyd, Ruth Thomas, James Thomas, Edgar Thomas, Arleen Devine, Harold Devine, Ned Johnson, Kenneth Prince, Clara Wolff, Gladys Cope, Florence Cochems, Evangelina Cochems, Dorothy Newman, Isabel Boyd.

Country Club Party
The ladies of the Country Club enjoyed a very pleasant series of games on Saturday afternoon, the hostess, Mrs. J. N. Bartholomew, being ably assisted by Mrs. J. E. Paul and Mrs. Marshall Northcross. The decorations were effectively carried out with sunflowers.

The handsome prizes were won by Mrs. R. L. Collins of Orange, a jardiniere; Mrs. Charles Kelly of Santa Ana, a hanging fern basket, and Mrs. Powell a cut glass bud vase.

At the close of the games tea and wafers were served. Mrs. J. C. Metzgar will be hostess for October.

YOSEMITE

Wake me the horn, touch not a string.
I've heard the crystal Merced sing.
Less eager now the seas to sail,
I've seen the irised Bridal Veil.
El Capitan's stupendous pile,
The Half Dome's front—a sheer half mile.
Cathedral Spires, the Sky-trail Rest,
And (cloud-hid now) the Eagle's Nest.
The Sentry's naked torso shines
The Royal Arches' storm-wrought frieze,
Would fire a nascent Pericles.
The spray of soried Vernal soars,
Nevada, farther, faintly roars,
And yonder, swaying to and fro,
Yosemite Falls in plumes of snow.
In Mirror Lake, with woods berimmed,
Yon matchless cliff is clearly limned.
A pine cone falls; a ripple stirs
The glassy floor; the image blurs.
The Merced thunders down defiles,
All green and white laves Happy
isles,
Emerges smooth where willows
lean,
Sings now its way through meadows green,
Takes up the Bridal's trailing lace,
Receives the Ribbon at its base,
Then seeks the sea. Its pebbles hold
All color tones from jade to gold.
The vale is purpling—cometh night;
The domes are drowned in amber
light;
The rising moon her brow reveals,
Where darkly now an eagle wheels.

FAREWELL SHOWER

Miss Mary Joe Grubb Honored At Pretty Shower, Miss Lyon Hostess

On the eve of leaving to enter Huntington Hall in Los Angeles to finish her education, Miss Mary Joe Grubb was the honoree at a delightful function, at which Miss Margaret Lyon was the charming hostess Saturday.

The pretty home on Bush street was a symphony in gold and brown color tints and the afternoon was whiled away with various games, in one of which Misses Ardis Burns and Hazel Pentecost took the trophies and in a guessing contest Miss Blanche Hill was the fortunate winner.

At a given time in the afternoon, there was a peal at the doorbell and a messenger was found there with two huge packages addressed to Miss Grubb and amid exclamations of admiration she displayed myriads of lovely personal gifts, which will beautify her room at Huntington Hall.

A deliciously served collation, carrying out the golden tints of the color motif, was spread upon small tables, those participating in the afternoon's pleasures being Misses Margaretie Tedford, Ardis Burns, Christine Watson, Roberta Daves, Marvel Hammond, Alverda West, Violet Wiesseman, Hazel Pentecost, Loraine Roberts, Mary Grubb, Blanche Hill.

AMUSEMENTS

At the West End

When lovers meet and woo and wed do the silly geese think that they are determining their own fates? Do the swains believe that they are so handsome that the girls cannot resist them and do the lassies think that it is their laughing black eyes and saucy smiles that lure the men to propose? Then they ought to pause in their laughter some night and they might catch a faint whisper behind them. It is the fairies discussing whether or not they are suited to each other. If the fairies decide that they are ill-matched, they will quarrel and part. If they seem to the little eavesdroppers to be ideally matched, then they will kiss.

That, at least, is what the little Lady Eileen firmly believes in the Famous Players production of that name in which Marguerite Clark is starring at the West End Theater this week. For Eileen is Irish, with all the rare charm and all the imaginative gifts of the Irish—and she believes in the fairies with all her heart and soul.

And why shouldn't she? If it were not for her true love she ever have found her true love and how would she ever have been rescued from the drunken brute of an impostor who married her for her money when she never knew she had any herself? Only the good fairies could have brought big Stanley Churchill to her when she never knew that he existed and only the elf of the air could have rolled the giant boulder down upon his fleeing brother as he galloped away in cowardly fear after he had nearly killed Stanley for rescuing the cringing Eileen.

OPERA PAGEANT OPENS OUTDOOR THEATRE

A dramatic and artistic event of unusual significance will be staged at the Stratford Open Air Theatre, Del Mar, September 30, in the form of a dedicatory pageant and masque.

The Stratford Outdoor Theatre was recently constructed by the citizens of Del Mar. Its location is in the heart of one of Del Mar's entrancing canyons. The artistically laid out theatre will open with the symbolic pageant and masque "The Spirit of Love," by Susanna C. Ott. The drama is a grand opera pageant and includes interpretative dancing, Wood Nymphs, Fairies, Dryads and Will O' the Wisp.

Many Stars
The principal parts in the drama will be played by prominent artists of national and international reputation, namely: M. Frascona, baritone, with the Metropolitan Opera Company; Edna Darch, Prima Donna, Chicago Grand Opera Company; Mme. Helena Thorne, Danroch Symphony Orchestra, and Mme. Constance Balfour, dramatic soprano of London and Los Angeles.

The pageant is directed by Lillian Parkhart Goldsmith.

Owing to the exceptional talent engaged for the pageant it is expected Santa Ana's artistic and dramatic circles will journey to Del Mar in numbers. The drive by automobile is about two hours and forty-five minutes.

New Orleans, La.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, for I know my daughter never would have been so well if she had not taken it. For more than a year she had suffered agonies from irregularity, backache, dizziness, and no appetite, but is now well. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters and you can publish this letter."—Mrs. A. Estrada, 129 N. Galvez Street, New Orleans, La.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"My daughter was feeling tired and all run down with no apparent cause. She had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before and knew its value so she again purchased it and she was able to keep to work, her eyes became bright and natural, and her system was built up completely. We generally keep the Vegetable Compound in the house for it is so relied on."—Mrs. E. J. Purdy, 5131 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

LIVESEY'S

214-216 East Fourth.

THIS is one of the big mortars at Totten, L. I., which can dump a very heavy shot on the deck of any foreign battleship that might try to make its way up Long Island Sound in order to shell New York City. Practice with these guns has brought the marksmen up to a state of efficiency where they believe they could drop a shot on the deck of an invading ship.

CIRCUS IS COMING TO SANTA ANA ON SEPTEMBER 29TH

Those to whom the odor of tanbark and sawdust is an incense come into their own when the Barnum & Bailey Circus spreads its broad canvases here in Santa Ana, Friday, September 29, for two performances and a street parade. Of course the circus will be bigger and better than ever before. It's a regular habit with all circuses, but the Barnum circus folk aver that it is but simple truth in relation to the program they intend presenting here. It combines about all the popular elements of amusement except penny ante and Shakespeare, with many new and unusual features, starting off with a new and colorful pageant descriptive of the tales of the "Thousand and One Nights."

The trained animal numbers range from crude elephants and college-bred bruisers to educated rats, cats and pigeons. No one has ever yet discovered why it is that several tons of elephant is willing to come forward and make a fool of himself for the amusement of a gaping crowd, yet, with whimsical tolerance, the elephants this year are scheduled to form themselves into a brass band, dance the tango, enact a mimic battle, and one even goes so far as to make a speech on preparedness in such stentorian tones that even a Western congressman might hear.

DISCOVER SKELETON STUFFED IN BARREL

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The second human skeleton to be unearthed within a fortnight was found by workers on the Verdome farm in Canarsie, where four years ago Joseph Verdome, owner of the truck farm, was shot and killed.

Jennie Seeley was tried on charge of slaying Verdome, but was acquitted on a plea of self-defense. Just previous to the Verdome tragedy, the man who was known in the neighborhood as Jennie Seeley's husband, disappeared.

The body found two weeks ago is believed by the police to have been that of Seeley. This belief was based on the finding of a leather belt bearing the initial "S."

The skull had been cleft by an axe. From the position of the skeleton just discovered, bent double in the narrow confines of a potato barrel, it was judged the man had been crammed inside while still living.

The body was buried within ten feet of where the first skeleton was found. In the pockets of the blue serge suit which still clung to the skeleton, was found a check for $10 made out to Rosario Passerelli and signed by Arnoldo De Loccolo of Quincy, Mass. Detectives left left for Quincy to hunt up and ask De Loccolo who Passerelli was. None in Canarsie remembered such a man.

A newspaper dated June, 1914, was found in the barrel. A memorandum bearing the name of Maurice Vuckan of 319 East Twenty-second street was in a pocket.

Atascadero News, August 12: Out from San Luis Obispo County this month to every corner and quarter of the United States and to many foreign countries, will go by mail the first issue of the Woman's National Magazine, to hundreds of thousands of homes. It is safe to say that not one in ten thousand of the people who will receive and read this magazine ever heard of San Luis Obispo County, or knows that it is on the map. To have a magazine with the largest circulation of any publication on the Pacific Coast, published in this country, is not going to hurt the county.

Consider
the purchasing power of such an army of readers, most of whom have a natural desire to own a home in California. Tempton-Paso Robles district is immediately north of the Atascadero Colony and is already feeling the stimulus of nationwide publicity.

Right now is a good time to visit the locality and see the fine Bartlett Pears, French Prunes and Almonds being harvested and see the walnuts, apples and other fruits on the trees—all grown without irrigation. ## RAN AUTO WHEN INTOXICATED: TEN DAYS

Sealer Brings Prosecution Charging Sale of Short Weight In Ice

"Ten days in the county jail." Another man heard those words in Justice Cox's court. This morning F. A. Anderson, a wood-sawyer of Orange, pleaded guilty to driving an automobile while intoxicated, and forthwith he was sentenced.

Last Saturday Anderson was driving on North Main street when he was stopped by J. B. Joplin, R. C. Northcross and Elwell Squires, who saw by the way his machine was acting that something was wrong. They turned the man over to Deputy Sheriff Gunbert, who took him to jail.

Charges Short Weight
Today George McPhee, county sealer or weights and measures, swore to a complaint charging E. J. Finley, driver of an ice wagon, with delivering twenty-three pounds of ice where he should have left forty pounds.

McPhee states he had received a number of complaints from people who suspected that they were not getting as much ice as they were paying for. It developed that some of the wagons have been selling ice by guess. Some of them have no scales upon them at all. McPhee sent word to Finley last week to have scales placed on his wagon at once. Saturday McPhee got a telephone message from J. F. Richards of Orange that he had weighed ice for which Finley tore out of a box 40 cents in coupons, and that there was only about twenty-three pounds of ice in the lump. Richards said he weighed the ice within five minutes after it was delivered. McPhee went to Richards' place, and weighed the ice, and the complaint resulted.

Hammer and Tongs
There was a merry war at a walnut-picking camp at the San Joaquin Fruit Company's ranch this morning. Two women were into it when a man jumped in, and, according to one of the women, used his feet as well as his fists.

Mrs. Emma Gay brought the story of the fracas to the district attorney's office. She said that Mrs. W. W. Reed had slapped her following a few words that was passed between them. Mrs. Gay resented the slap by going into battle with a vim. She got Mrs. Reed down and was choking her when Mrs. Reed yelled to her husband for help, saying, "Babe, she is killing me." Mrs. Gay said that the husband rushed in, and kicked her three times, once on the forehead.

Under Sheriff Iman brought Reed to Justice Cox's office, where he pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for September 29. Reed was limping and his face showed marks of a blow, and it appears that in the fracas he received some reminders of the affair.

MARQUIS OKUMA MAY NOT ACCEPT TITLE DENOUNCED BY HIM

TOKYO, Sept. 25.—With reports being circulated in political circles that Marquis Okuma is about to retire from the premiership, a rumor, apparently well founded, has spread throughout Japan that the emperor will elevate the marquis to the ranks of the genro, or elder statesman, when he leaves office. The council of genro is the highest political body in Japan. Should Okuma be named, an interesting situation would be created, inasmuch as the marquis has consistently denounced the genro institution.

LEVEES BONDS CARRY EASILY

Storm Water District On East Side Moving Ahead With Protection Plans

While the United Storm Water District on the west side of the Santa Ana river is battling within itself, the Olive-West Orange Storm Water District on the east side of the river is moving rapidly ahead to the protective work that it has planned. Last Saturday the east side voters voted $31,000 bonds for the levees. The bonds were carried by a vote of 113 for to 29 against.

The directors of the Olive-West Orange district hope to finish the work before the heavy rains of the winter set in. The work will include a row of piling along the river where needed. The district has five or six miles of river bank.

THE DOUBLE VOTES MAKE THIS THE BIG WEEK OF THE CONTEST

Present Vote Schedule Expires Next Saturday and Thereafter Subscriptions Have Only One-half Their Present Value—Auxiliary Prizes An Added Incentive For Greater Effort.

Active Contestants Realize That This Week Is Their Last Chance to Make Big Gains—An Hour Lost Between Now and Next Saturday Night Will Take Two Hours to Make Up After This Week.

This week will be the big week of the contest!

The fact that after next Saturday subscriptions will be worth only one-half their present vote value and the further fact that auxiliary prizes, the $75.00 diamond ring and the $35.00 suits are to be awarded next Saturday at 6 o'clock, certainly furnish an incentive to contestants as well as their friends to make this the banner week of the entire contest.

It should place before every contestant who has reason to believe that he or she is "in" on either the Studebaker Six, the $500.00 cash second grand prize, or the district cash prizes, this question: "Can I afford to relax my efforts to secure a single subscription at this critical stage?"

Undoubtedly the hard work of the contest is yet to be done. True there has already been much effective work done, but the supreme effort must yet be made and the contestants who realize this fact will spare no effort to pile up votes this week, while every subscription counts double votes.

Again the Contest Editor wishes to impress upon contestants that this is the important week—the week that will very probably decide the winner. It is up to you to decide which one of you will ride home in the big Studebaker Six Touring Car. Get into the battle with the same enthusiasm that inspired at the start. Let nothing discourage you, for remember if you are meeting with adverse results, others most likely are facing no better.

Tell your friends who have promised you their subscriptions that this is the last opportunity that you will have to call on them and get extra votes for their subscriptions. They have promised you their subscriptions and they intend giving them to you, but as is the case in all walks of life they want to hold back—some of them because they were not able to give their subscriptions before—others because they want to see if you really mean business and if they are giving their subscriptions to a candidate who is going to stay with the battle until the last gun is fired.

Only One Change In Positions Today
Today there is only one change in the positions of the leaders, though several contestants added considerably to their scores. Herman Ranney steps up from ninth to eighth place, passing Miss Lila Crane by a margin of less than one thousand votes.

Here are some of the vote gains made today: Miss La Rue Fipps, 55,000; Miss Sylvia Shields, 56,690; G. Ben Brown, 21,040; Miss Ella Davis, 48,709; Mrs. Myrtle Waffle, 43,520; Miss Lila Crane, 15,000; Herman Ranney, 23,100.

It will be noted from the above that many contestants have not reported since Saturday. This is in no wise surprising, as they are no doubt devoting their time to hustling votes to be turned in when convenient.

Said one contestant who called at the office for additional blanks today: "I feel that I have not a moment to spare, as I have so many calls to make this week that I don't see how I can get around to them all before next Saturday." And with that she was away on her quest for subscriptions.

AT THE COURTHOUSE TO SUBMIT BRIEFS IN STORM WATER'S REVIEW WRIT CASE

This morning District Attorney L. A. Weyl, representing the Board of Supervisors, and Attorneys H. C. Head and H. G. Ames, representing the United Storm Water District, appeared in the appellate court in response to the order of that court for a review of the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors relative to the formation of the storm water district. The attack upon the validity of the district came from the Hellman, Bixby and Los Alamitos Sugar Company interests, and the purpose of the hearing in the appellate court is to determine whether or not the proceedings are in accordance with law.

This morning there was submitted a full transcript of all proceedings relative to the formation of the district. However, there was no argument. It was the order of the court that the case be submitted on briefs. It will probably be four weeks before the case is submitted to the appellate court.

Want Road Repaired
A petition has been received by the Board of Supervisors from Laguna Beach and Arch Beach residents urging that steps be taken at once to do repair work on the coast road between Laguna and Serra. It is stated that unless something is done the road will be impassable this winter.

It is stated that there is one fill at Arch Beach that should be widened and surfaced, as the place has already been the scene of numerous accidents and near-accidents.

Foreclosure Case
Suit to foreclose a $1000 mortgage has been brought by Margaret M. Smith against C. E. L. Gresh. Lots at Seal Beach are involved.

Attachment Cases
Notices of attachment have been recorded, in one case by A. W. Ames against Fred Mix, and in another by Augusta Toussaint against Dick Paris. In the Toussaint case a lot at Fullerton is attached on a demand for $2300.

OCEANSIDE MARSHAL IS SHOT TO DEATH BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 25.—John E. Mugan, city marshal of Oceanside, was shot and instantly killed by Patrick Burke, a deputy sheriff and night-watchman. The shooting, according to witnesses, followed a short argument.

Burke was arrested by Undersheriff Thomas Rynning and taken to the county jail in San Diego. There he said he meant only to flourish the revolver and that its discharge was a surprise to him.

Mugan was formerly employed as a special officer on the San Diego force. There has been friction between Mugan and Burke for months, according to residents of this city.

Stories concerning the argument vary greatly, but all agree that it was short. Coroner Marsh, seen in San Diego, said the inquest would be exhaustive. The beginning of the Mugan-Burke feud, it is said, was regarding official authority. Mugan, it is said, although city marshal, never had been granted a deputy sheriff's star, while Burke had such authority.

2 DROWN AS WIFE OF MINISTER TRIES TO SAVE HER HUSBAND

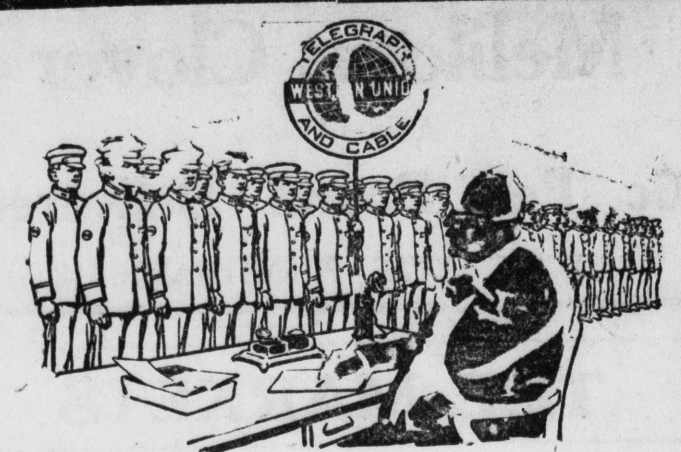

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 25.—In a futile attempt to save her husband from drowning, both Mrs. Cunningham, age 37, and Rev. B. F. Cunningham, age 38, pastor of the United Brethren church of Riverside, met death in the swimming hole at Domenigoni Hot Springs, near Lakeview, about twenty miles east of Riverside.

Rev. Cunningham and his wife, accompanied by their three small children, Mrs. Mary J. Winner, and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Daisy Hyde, went out to the hot springs on a picnic. Rev. Cunningham and his wife entered the plunge. The former, who could swim but little, got beyond his depth and called for help. Mrs. Cunningham swam quickly to him, but in the struggle both were drowned before other members of the party could summon aid.

IDEAL GAS FURNACE

This furnace burns city gas for fuel and is so constructed that the hot gas is compelled to travel a long distance, over heavy sheet iron surfaces, before it escapes. These surfaces extract all of the heat from the gas, so that when the fumes escape to the chimney, the heat has been extracted and the waste pipe is the coolest on the furnace. This is just the reverse of other furnaces, where the smoke pipe is the hottest. The radiated heat is mixed with fresh air and delivered in the house in the usual manner. This heated air is fresh, pure and entirely free from gas fumes and is heated to a temperature that causes it to travel readily.
